Carl's Dye-a-logue

I hope you noticed a few minor, yet noticeable, changes to the bulletin. One of the most noteworthy changes is on the back page and involves our daily Bible reading plan.

The plan that was being published was somewhat confusing (to me, anyway). I think this new plan will be a little less confusing. It is a 52 week plan that starts on Sunday (and any Sunday will do...even the second Sunday of a new year) that will take you all the way through the Bible.

The organization of the plan makes it somewhat unique as well. Each day of the week has a "theme" of sorts that will run throughout the course of the 52 weeks:

- ◇ On Sunday, the reading will be from the Epistles (Letters) of the New Testament.
- ◇ On Monday, the reading will be from The Law or Torah (Genesis - Deuteronomy).
- ◇ On Tuesday, the reading is from the books of history in the Old Testament (Joshua - Esther).
- ◇ On Wednesday, the reading is taken from the book of Psalms.
- ◇ On Thursday, the reading is from the other books of poetry in the Old Testament (Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon/Songs).
- ◇ On Friday, the reading is from the books of prophecy (the first 48 weeks in the Old Testament and the final four weeks in Revelation).
- ◇ On Saturday, the reading is from the Gospels (weeks 1-38) and Acts (weeks 39-52).

I do hope you will take advantage of this new resource. Most of the readings should take 15-20 (some may be a little longer or shorter).

If you would like to have a copy of the full plan, just let me or Donna know and we can make you a copy (or visit www.Bible-Reading.com). Every day in the Word!

Bible Reading Plan

- Sunday - Romans 1 - 2
- Monday - Genesis 1 - 3
- Tuesday - Joshua 1 - 5
- Wednesday - Psalms 1 - 2
- Thursday - Job 1 - 2
- Friday - Isaiah 1 - 6
- Saturday - Matthew 1 - 2

Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

Psalm 32:11

It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

Laminations 3:22-23

Hear me speedily, O Lord: My spirit failed: hide not thy face: from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit. Cause me to hear Thy lovingkindness in the morning: for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto Thee.

Psalm 14:3:7-8

"OLD BUT NOT DEAD YET"

We're getting older that's for sure. But we're not over the hill. We take therapy for this, exercise for that and regularly take a pill. We're still kicking but not too high I'll have to say, But we're very thankful to our Lord when we rise and walk each day. Some say there is no pleasure in growing old, on this I disagree. We have stiff joints, pain and can't do what we used to. Our body just wears out like God intended it to be. There's the beautiful seasons, sun sets, moonlight nights and flowers, God gave us to enjoy. And our wonderful precious family God gave us "OH BOY" What would we have done without their help day after day? Visits, those grand and great grands how lively, but sweet. When they go home after a long day of play we're really beat. As we get older we know the day is coming when our Savior will come. And get us for our prepared home. We hate to leave our family, but our other loved ones we will meet. And there we'll live forever where is "OH SO SWEET!"

Written by our own Wilma Webb for Jackie Reed, a former member and friend.
