Carl's Dye-a-logue

Some of you probably noticed this past Sunday that somebody (namely me) needed a haircut. Nobody said anything, but when my hair touches the collar of my shirt...I know it is time.

In one congregation that I've worked at there was a lady who, when she felt she needed to, would tell me, "We didn't hire no hippy preacher!" This was her way of telling me that it was time to get a haircut.

So on Tuesday I got a haircut. When the barber had finished cutting (and had given me my eyes back) I was very pleased...with the front. Then he used a hand mirror to show me the back.

I looked at the neckline and it was fine. But then my eyes were drawn to the back part of the top of my head: there was an ever so subtle, yet noticeable, spot where the hair was A.W.O.L.!

When I noticed it, I nearly jumped out of the chair: "Wait! What's that?" I asked pointing to the spot. The barber calmly said: "That's not on me!"

So, at Thanksgiving last year I was told I needed bi-focal lenses for my glasses. And now THIS! The mid-forties are proving to be a tough time to handle.

I guess what I'm starting to realize is that time marches on. As much as we would like for our bodies to stay young...they don't. As some people in the sports world are fond of saying: "Father Time is undefeated."

But even as I write this, I have to smile. Because one day this body that apparently is starting to waver under "Father Time's" relentless attack will be replaced with a new and improved body...one that "Father Time" cannot even lay a finger on—let alone defeat.

One day, when the perishable is clothed with the imperishable and the mortal with immortality, death will be swallowed up in victory! (see 1 Corinthians 15:54)

MARANATHA! Lord come, and quickly!

LTC Information

Our "training" for LTC is in high gear. Those in drama, puppets and chorus need to be in the fellowship room by 2:00 each Sunday afternoon. If you are just in Bible Bowl, that starts at 4:15. It is very important that you be here every week and that you let Carl know if you are not going to be able to

Valentine Banquet

The Valentine Banquet is Friday night, February 13, in the fellowship hall, starting at 6:00PM. Food provided by The Country Cottage from Locust Grove.

Grilled Montreal Chicken and Glazed Ham, vegetables, salad, rolls and dessert.

Price is $15.00 per person.

Once again this year there is no charge for our widows and widowers. Please make check payable to the church and turn it in by February 22.

To date, we have 36 coming and we NEED at least 40. Time is growing short, sign up today!

National Anthem @ Naturals' Game

There was very little response to singing the National Anthem on August 13...so how does May 30 sound? That is the weekend AFTER Memorial Day, a Saturday, game time is 6:05, and they are giving away camo jerseys to the first 1500 fans. Tickets will be $7-9. Please talk to Carl ASAP if this is of interest to you.

PANTRY

Don't forget we are giving money to our pantry. There is a can on the table in the front foyer for you to put in your check or money. Thanks to you for your support in this project.
