Our Sick

Jackie Hayes was involved in an automobile accident 2/12/16. As a result of injuries sustained in the collision, and after consultation with her doctor, she will be at Health South Rehabilitation in Fayetteville for two weeks. Please keep her, Donna, and the rest of her family in your prayers during this time.

Having said that, I realize that we are left with imperfect people running for office. So what do we do? We pray for guidance: that we can vote for the one who will do the best job leading our nation, state, county, city, school board, etc. as God would have us led.

And then we go to the polls and, based on our convictions, we vote!

Carl's Dye-a-logue

Once every four years there is a time unlike any other. Once every four years people suddenly become VERY opinionated (OK, for some it is more than just once every four years). 2016 is one of those years.

For some time now, the news has been dominated by those who would like to be President of the United States. There have been debates. Every form of media has been employed by the different campaigns to tell anyone who will listen why So-And-So should get your vote.

Tuesday, March 1 is the date of the Arkansas primary elections (early voting is now open, FYI). I want to encourage you to engage in the political process and vote, even though it is "just a primary election."

I would not presume to tell you for whom to vote (or whom to vote against). I will not endorse one political party over the other (publically anyway)...not even on Facebook. That is not my place as your minister.

I would presume, however, to urge you to be an informed voter. Today, a candidate's voting record is little more than a Google, Bing, Yahoo!, etc. search away. Go to the campaign's web page and see what they believe about the issues that are important to you.

Mostly, though, I would encourage you to investigate where the various candidates stand on issues of Biblical significance.

If the Bible plainly teaches that something is wrong and a candidate believes that it is right, OK, or even debatable, how can we consider voting for them?

If the Bible plainly teaches that something is right and a candidate believes that it is wrong, questionable, or even debatable, how can we consider voting for them?

Admittedly, some issues are "bigger" than others and some of the most "pressing" political issues in this election may not be directly addressed in Scripture. But we can find principles to help us make a choice.

And it doesn't matter if the person is running for President or Dog Catcher...our standard should be the same.

Bible Class and Devotional81

Forty six of our members came and enjoyed, good food, good fellowship and a great time with the games at our Valentine's Banquet. The one and only master of ceremonies was our own Mr. Carl Dye. He did a great job. We laughed a lot!

A special thank you from the widows to the individual who paid for their meals. They appreciate it very much.

Thanks to Joyce Neff who did a great job on the decorations. Thanks to the kitchen help before and after, because we had to do little more getting ready and cleaning up afterwards. Anyone that helped—Thank You!

Money for Banquet is due by February 28!!
Thanks!

End of the Month Singing!
Next Wednesday Evening February 24, is our last of the month singing! By your attendance at these Wednesday evening assemblies, you encourage our young men as they lead a song or two. You also encourage our "more experienced" song leaders by attending. It also encourages the men who prepare our weekly devotionals...which have been exceptional of late. Don't miss any of our mid-week encouragement opportunities!

Card Signing

Sunday night,
February 28, following the evening service, is our card signing for the month of March. Bring snacks, finger foods and enjoy the fellowship.

REFLECTIONS ON OUR HYMNS

In Christians homes, little children learn to sing, "Jesus Loves Me, this I know, for the Bible tells me so." Often they learn this unique song as soon as they are able to talk. These sweet simple words were penned by Anna Warner. Actually, she was writing a novel and the song was Solely for a fictional character to sing. The novel was Say and Seal and it was published in 1859. The book became a best seller and the simple children poem quickly became very popular nationwide.

William B. Brad wrote the tune in 1861 and quickly as communications in those days permitted, the song was being sung in Sunday Schools all over the country.

In later years when missionaries were allowed into China, the song was reality accepted by the Chinese because of its simplicity. Perhaps it might be well for all of us to become more like children (as the Bible teachers) and learn how to cherish and respond to the gentle theme and great truth of this song— that Jesus loves us, and that we are "weak and He is strong!"
