Carl's Dye-a-logue

Casually announced on the back page of last week's bulletin (and this week's, for that matter) is that on Wednesday, March 11, at 6:00 PM we will be having our first Vacation Bible School planning meeting for 2015.

We've received several "suggestions" via mail outs from assorted publishing companies. I know several of you probably have some ideas. I know I have some ideas for a theme. Selecting a theme will be the primary purpose of this meeting. Possible dates may also be discussed.

Once we have a theme, we will then talk a little bit about last year's VBS and how we can learn and make this year's VBS better.

I encourage you, if you'd like to help with planning VBS this year, to attend this meeting. We need everyone to help if 2015 is going to be the best VBS yet for Eastgate.

VBS is not just about kids...well, OK, that week is about making sure the kids have fun, learn important lessons, and want to come back: for the next 51 weeks on Sunday and Wednesday!

But for VBS to be successful, the whole congregation needs to be involved in preparation.

I know there are some who may not want to help plan VBS, but they might want to assist in some way...help teach a class (i.e. teacher helper) or maybe help behind the scenes. What I'm saying is you need to plan now to be involved in some way, shape, form, or fashion.

One very important way you can be involved, even right now, is to start praying for VBS to be successful.

Begin to pray for the children you know will come.

Begin to pray for the children you know you will invite to come.

Begin to pray for God to insert you into the lives of people in our area that have children you can invite to attend VBS.

Begin to pray for those who will be planning VBS.

Begin to pray for those who will be "on the front lines" during VBS.

God is waiting to do incredible things...we need only to ask!

Green Party

Remember and plan now to attend the "2nd Annual Green Party" at the Dye's home March 17 from 5:30 PM - 7:30 PM. Wear something green and bring a food item to share that is green...even if it is not "supposed" to be green. It will be fun for everyone!!

LTC Preview

Not everyone can go to Dallas to see our participants perform. So on Sunday, March 29 there will be a preview performance for the congregation. March 29 is an Agape Sunday, so the lunch that day will be sort of a "dinner theatre." More details later...plan now to come!

A Note from Your Shepherds

Technology is a good thing. Over the past couple of months, though, it seems we have been indulging in too much of a good thing. Several people have mentioned to us that they have noted an increase in cell phone usage during service. We understand that some use their phones to take notes or use a Bible app and if that is what you like to do, that is fine. But some are sending text messages, looking at and posting to Facebook (or other social media sites), and the like. Please be considerate of those around you and help everyone keep their mind on what they are here for.

Youth Notes From Eric:

Please turn in money by February 25th (do NOT let the $25 keep you from attending: just let Eric know if you need some assistance). Sign up sheet is on the youth bulletin board.
