Prayer Request

Jackie Hayes called today to let us know, she will have a stress test tomorrow, Thursday, April 28, and if everything goes ok, her Doctor will do the surgery on her leg. Jackie would like prayers on her behalf that everything will be all right. We love you Jackie!

NOTHING lies beyond the reach of prayer except what lies outside the will of God.

Carl's Dye-a-logue

At Eastgate, one of the fellowship opportunities that we employ is Family Life Groups. One Sunday, every other month (at least), these groups meet after our morning worship assembly to share a meal and to share information.

These groups are also designed for us to get to know each other better...but if we are to truly maximize the effectiveness of these groups, there has to be a change every so often.

The last time the groups were shuffled, my understanding is that groups were formed based on demographics (basically so that people who already knew each other well were in the same group).

For at least the past three years (actually much longer), the only changes to the groups has been adding new members.

Well, it was time for some wholesale changes to be made. So here is what was done:

1. The Family Life Group leaders remained the same, as did the numbers of the groups.
2. Each group was assigned one of our elders.
3. Then each family unit was assigned to one of the three groups.

Both of the last two steps were performed via a "blind draw." In other words, I printed the names of each family in the congregation and put them in a bowl. Then I drew one name out of the bowl...they were assigned FLG#1; the next name was assigned FLG#2; then next FLG#3. Then we went back to FLG#1, etc.

The hope in shuffling groups this way is that we will fellowship with folks we don't currently spend a whole lot of time fellowshiping with.

So...what group are you now in? Fair question. However the results of the random draw are currently being reviewed by the "accountable" firm of Kimbrow, Morris, and Sweeney (see Hebrews 13:17).

Once this prestigious firm has given their official certification and okie-dokie the new groups will be posted and lists made available to the congregation.

End of the Month Singing!

This evening, April 27 is our end of the month singing and we really need everyone to be here because, by your attendance at these Wednesday evening assemblies, you encourage our young men as they lead a song or two. You also encourage our "more experienced" song leaders by attending. The men that do our devo's are doing a great job and also need your encouragement. Don't miss any of our mid-week encouragement opportunities! Our singing is sounding better each month!!

NO ONE FROWNS AT A SMILE.

Green Valley Bible Camp

It is time again to start thinking about GVB Camp. Applications are available now in the church office and on the table in the foyer. Be sure when you fill one out to provide all information requested (or NA if doesn't apply.) The church will pay all the fees for the campers who regularly attend Eastgate. If you have a friend who wants to attend, they will have to pay 120.00 for regular and 60.00 for day campers.

Regular camp is July 3-July 9 and is open to students age 11 by Oct. 1 thru 2016 High School graduates.

Day camp is July 4-7 and is open to students who have finished the first grade thru 11 years old. The church will provide transportation each day for day campers.

Turn in your completed application to the church office, Donna or Sarah by May 8 or as soon as possible!
