Carl's Dye-a-logue

Have you, perchance, been watching the FIFA Women's World Cup? I fear that many of you would rather watch paint dry as watch a soccer match...even if it is the World Cup!

Well, as a citizen of the United States, we have a vested interest in the outcome of the World Cup. According to FIFA's world rankings, the U.S. is ranked second in the world in women's soccer.

On Monday night, the U.S. played Columbia in the "Round of 16" portion of the tournament for the chance to advance to the quarterfinals. Four minutes into the game, the U.S. scored a goal...except it did not count. The Assistant Referee's flag was up signaling an off sides call.

Without getting into what "off sides" means in soccer, being a former soccer referee myself, I started to "constructively voice my displeasure" towards what I thought was a bad, biased call in a stadium in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada!

Reflecting back, the U.S. player was in an off sides position (but not by much). The correct call was made, even though I was not happy about it.

Then it dawned on me that there was some bias in play...but not by the officials in the match (until the only two US players who had already received a yellow card in the tournament were each shown a yellow card, thus each is suspended for the quarterfinal game). I was biased! My team scored a goal and then someone said, "Sorry, no."

But this is not just something I struggle with when watching soccer (or any other sport, for that matter). I struggle with it in every other aspect of life.

Unfortunately we sometimes take this same approach to the Bible. When we are engaged in an activity and the Bible points out that God disapproves of that activity, we try to explain it away. One popular way of doing this is saying: "That's only for people in the first century!"

The Bible is intended for all people for all time. When we have a different "opinion" than the Bible, then we need to change. When we read or study the Bible we need to do so with a attitude free of preconceived ideas and biases.

Arguing with a referee will get you no where fast (I tried it as a player)...or at least no where you want to go. Arguing with God is exactly the same...it will get you no where you want to go: but for eternity!

Lord, help me to remember that every morning is a new beginning, and that nothing can happen to me today but that you and I standing together in the strength you impart can handle it and make of this day a lovely work of art.....

PM: "The Holy Spirit of God-The Gifts of the Holy Spirit"

Family Life Group #3 (Rice) will have potluck and meeting following the morning service June 28.

Card Signing

 Sunday night, June 28 following the evening service, is our card signing for the month of July. Bring snacks, finger foods and enjoy the fellowship.

Anyone who would like to help with our VBS in ANY way needs to let Carl know ASAP. We need people to walk with the kids, we need people to work the registration table, we need people to help serve supper to the kids, and other jobs as well. If you ever wanted to run away and join the circus, NOW is your chance!

Change has Come

Perhaps you noticed that there is something different about the foyer. Well some changes have been made to improve communication in our congregation.

The new bulletin board will be used for flyers, signup sheets, etc. concerning upcoming events.

The new paper trays (beside the new bulletin board) will keep the tables from being too cluttered.

Sign up Sheets

There are three sign up sheets posted on the new bulletin board.

- ⇒ One is for the "Golden Ladies" trip to "flea markets & lunch" at Sulphur Springs, AR. on Friday, June 26.
- ⇒ One is for the "Golden Ladies and Gentlemen" trip to Crystal Bridges on July 2.
- ⇒ The third is if you would like the complete set of CD's of our current Sunday night series on the Holy Spirit.

Make your plans now, call your neighbors and invite your friends to come and witness "The Greatest Show in Heaven or on Earth"

Youth

Green Valley Bible Camp coming up July 5th thru 10th. At the last count we had 29 regular campers and 7 day time campers (which is July 6th thru July 9th). That's the largest amount we've had in a long time. All of you have a good time, be careful and learn a lot!

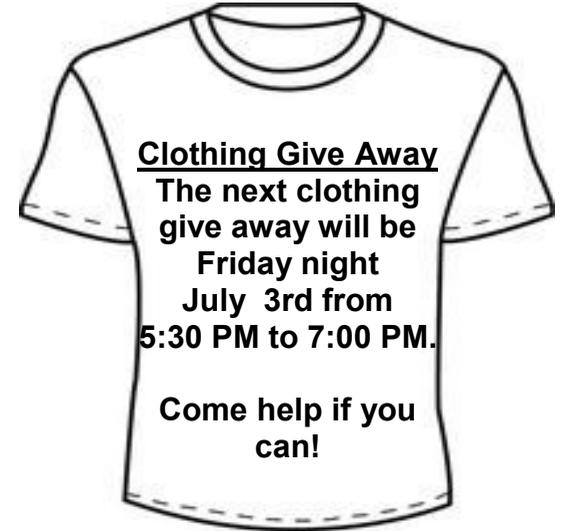

VBS coming up July 20 thru 24, in the evening from 5:30pm-8:00pm.

We need to pray for these two events!

WHAT GOD HAS PROMISED

God has not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our life through:
God has not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God has promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way;
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love.
