Carl's Dye-a-logue

On Tuesday night, I had a hankering for some ice cream. But, alas, the freezer was bare. So I went to the grocery store to buy a carton.

After spending some time deciding on what I wanted, I took it to the check out line, scanned it and paid for it. As I was picking up the bag to leave, I saw a guy getting in line after me...or so I thought.

He then spoke to me. I don't know who he is exactly, but he started talking to me. But what he said was the memorable part.

He said he just wanted to thank me again for a fantastic VBS and that his kids were still singing the songs and anxious to attend next year!

The rest of his family then caught up with him (apparently he'd hurried to be sure to catch me). His kids were fairly young and didn't seem to recognize me exactly - probably because I didn't have my ring master hat on - but they waved at me, I waved at them and went home with my ice cream.

I know sometimes we get frustrated and feel things like VBS and Friend's Day, for example, fail to achieve the desired result in our own eyes. Perhaps they don't from our perspective...but maybe they do from God's perspective.

In 1 Corinthians 3:6-8 Paul writes these words:
⁶I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow. ⁷So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. ⁸The man who plants and the man who waters have one purpose, and each will be rewarded according to his own labor.

My point is that we just need to keep planting and watering the seed: that is our job. The seed will eventually take root and grow: that is God's job. He is faithful, He will give the increase!

Family Life Groups

FLG #1 (JASON DAWDY)

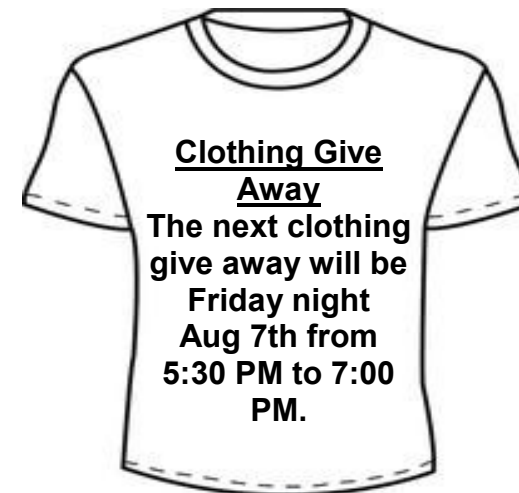

FLG #2 (ANDY INGRAM)

FLG #3 (LINN RICE)

There is a new copy of our three Family Life Groups on the bulletin board. Our Family Life Groups have 18 to 20 families in each group with a deacon over each one (they are listed above). Each group tries to meet at least every other month for a pot luck meal and information meeting.

These meetings allow communication of church events and other "happenings" and help us get to know one another better. At times each FLG will do special projects.

Please use the red pen to make any corrections to your information. We will print copies for everyone. Please give your e-mail address if you would like for it to be with your name. If your name is not in one of the groups, please let the office know ASAP!

Clothing Give Away

The next clothing give away will be Friday night Aug 7th from 5:30 PM to 7:00 PM.
