So what are you passing down to subsequent generations? Is it just “monetary stuff”? Are you just passing down “things”? Or are you passing down something more?

In 2 Timothy 1:5, Paul tells Timothy, “I have been reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.”

What is your legacy? When future generations in your family think about you, what will they remember? That you gave them a lot of “stuff” or something with great monetary value? Is that all?

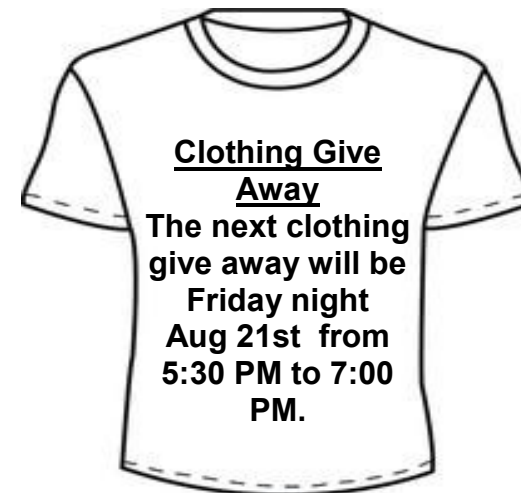

Does your family see a sincere faith living in you and being passed down to future generations? Are you striving to leave a legacy of faith?

Work Day

Everyone needs to mark their calendars for Saturday, August 22. Starting at 8:00 AM we will be having a work day here at the building. Linn Rice has several projects on the schedule, so we need everyone who can to be here so that all the work will get done.
