Carl's Dye-a-logue

Monica's parents visited us several weeks ago. When they came, they came bearing gifts...and not just for their granddaughters!

They brought us an antique radio that likely dates back to the 1940s or earlier. It's a lovely conversation piece.

But they also brought us some different dishes. I can't say the dishes are "new" because they are not new. They belonged to Monica's Grandma Scaggiari (just wanted to see if I could still spell Monica's maiden name).

Monica says she remembers eating off these dishes every time they would go over to her grandmother's house. Lots of memories for Monica. But seeing them also brought up memories of my own.

I also remember eating at my dad's mom's house. Her name was "Muzzie." Now when it was just my immediate family eating with her, we used one set of dishes. But if the whole family was together, then we used Muzzie's special dishes (or I should say the "grown ups" used Muzzie's special dishes).

These special dishes were her china and they were reserved for special occasions...mostly holidays and funerals. The rest of the time they were stored safely out of the reach of her youngest grandson.

Do you have anything like that? Something that you pull out for special occasions, then safely store away? Something that others may only see on holidays and funerals? Does that, perhaps, describe your faith?

In Matthew 5:16, Jesus says, "...let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven."

End of the Month Singing

Wednesday Evening, August 31 is our end of the month singing. Plan to join us as we sing some favorite songs and learn some new ones. This is also a great chance to grow some new song leaders.

Prayer List Update

Jackie Hayes skin graft surgery on her leg last Friday is coming along pretty good. Today she will be going to the Dr. to see if she gets to stand on her leg. She has been down in her chair and is getting pretty tired of it, so maybe she will be able to get around more after today. You know the saying "IF it weren't for bad luck, I'd have no luck at all?" Well, Jackie had to be taken to the emergency room last night with a kidney stone! She is better today.

Coming in September!!!
Church Picnic!!

Saturday, September 17

Our annual church picnic will be held September 17, in our fellowship room, beginning at 6:00pm, eating at 6:30pm. Meat, buns, chips, etc. will be provided. We ask that everyone bring a salad, vegetable or dessert. Please sign the list on the bulletin board if you plan to come and what you are bringing. This is always a great family night together with great food and warm fellowship. Don't forget to sign up if you plan to come.

The FIRST Annual Eastgate Homemade ice-cream "freeze off"

In conjunction with our Family Picnic If you want to "compete" sign up in the foyer by Sunday, September 11 Judging will be by a distinguished panel of a few expert judges and, YES: "Prizes" will be awarded

I know getting things organized and ready to become an event is probably part of a preacher's job, but I just want to say Thank You to Carl for all he does for the Lord and our church family. He works hard, on his sermons, papers, printing and so many things he does every week, I enjoy working with him and just wanted to say Thank You again! You made Friends Day a special day for all of us!

-Donna

Ruth Rally for 7-12th grade girls will be Friday, September 30 - Saturday, October 1. The cost is $15.00. Please have your money turned in by Wednesday August 31. There is a sign up sheet on the youth bulletin board. More details/schedule to come.

The Deeper Youth Conference for 6th-12th grade will be October 21-22. More detail/schedule to come.

Your faith was not meant to be a special occasion only display. Your faith was not meant to only be shown on holidays and at funerals.

Your faith is to be displayed each and every day. When people look at you on a Thursday, at 1:47 PM, they should see your faith just as clearly as if they look at you on a Sunday morning at 10:45 AM.

Don't save the sharing of your faith for special occasions either. Don't wait until next year's Friends Day (August 27, 2017 FYI) to reach out to your friends with an invitation to join you at church.

The problem with waiting for a special occasion to share your faith (or let your light shine) is that we don't know if there is going to be an August 27, 2017.

So don't wait. Let your light shine today, tomorrow, and for the rest of your life. Remember: EVERYDAY you are alive is a special occasion!

The next clothing workday is Wednesday September 7th from 10:00am until 12:00pm. The next clothing Give Away is Friday September 9th from 5:30 until 7:00pm.
