Carl's Dye-a-logue

On September 25, 2016 the golfing world lost someone very special. Arnold Palmer passed away at the age of 87. He was definitely one of the pioneers of the modern game of golf.

As a pioneer, there are books, videos, etc. with tips from him. There is one tip that I'd like to share with you that is attributed to Arnold Palmer. It is a tip that has saved me countless strokes.

He said, "I have a tip that can take five strokes off anyone's golf game: it's called an eraser."

Even though it is only Wednesday, I am fairly certain that when the Ryder Cup (that's a team golf event pitting the United States verses Europe) begins on Friday, they will observe a moment of silence in memory of the great Arnold Palmer and what he meant to the game of golf.

And, I would venture to say, that during that moment of silence, people will be...silent. Maybe a bird will chirp or there may be some other noise that can't be controlled: but for the most part, the people gathered will be silent as they reflect and remember a man who gave so much to the game of golf.

As I reflect on this probability, I can't help but see similarities to a special "moment of silence" we observe each and every Sunday. You know, Jesus gave so much for us...and not just for golfers, but for everyone.

So when we reflect and remember a man who gave so much for us by participating in the Lord's Supper, how does our attitude compare? Are we more somber and serious for a man who has died than we are for our Lord who died, yet rose again?

How do we spend those few moments? Do we spend them reflecting on what we have to do that

End of the Month Singing

Tonight, September 28 is our end of the month singing. We are glad you came to sing some favorite songs and learn some new ones. This is also a great chance to grow some new song leaders. The singing the last few months has really sounded better and better each time. Your presence will encourage everyone.

afternoon? Do we sorrowfully mourn that the weekend is almost over?

Or do we spend that time reflecting on our Lord's love that prompted Him to leave heaven and come to earth for the express purpose of suffering and dying for us? Do we, perhaps tearfully, mourn His innocent loss of life and what his death, burial, and resurrection means for us?

Paul is very direct in instructing the Corinthians on how they (and we) were (and are) to observe the Lord's Supper (see 1 Corinthians 11:23-32).

In verse 26, Paul tells us why proper observance of the Lord's Supper is so important. He says, "For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes."

I challenge you to observe a "moment of silence" this Sunday, as you participate in the communion, to remember and reflect on the One who has done and continues to do so very much for you.

12 Questions

Remember when you were asked, "If you could ask Jesus one question, what would it be?" This was asked all over Northwest Arkansas and the top four questions will be answered at the 2016 NWA Lectureship. The other eight questions will be answered via video on the website www.12questionsnwa.org.

Here is the "live" schedule:

Sunday, October 16 at the Springdale Performing Arts Center
5:30 - 7:00 PM

"The Problem of evil: Why do the innocent suffer?"

Tony Dishman - Kansas City, MO

Monday, October 17

"How can You love us enough to suffer and die for us?"

Steve Schinnerer - Cave Springs, AR

Tuesday, October 18

"When are You coming back?"

Carl Dye - Siloam Springs, AR

Monday & Tuesday will be at the Robinson Ave. church of Christ

Wednesday, October 19 is the preacher exchange and will answer: "What is Heaven like?"
